Message for St. Pius X High School Annual - Del Sarto

This volume will be a cherished reminder of this year of school at St. Pius X. With it go my congratulations to the students and words of commendation and appreciation to the teachers and to the parents and others who, with loving care and at great sacrifice, have made this school year possible. May the blessing of God be upon you now and forever.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

DEDICATION

Basic to the nature of every woman is the dominating character trait of being weak in time of great emotional stress. Therefore, it is especially noteworthy when a woman displays selflessness and courage in time of deep tragedy.

Such was the reaction of Mrs. John F. Kennedy to the tragedy of November 22, 1963. Through her self-composure, dignity, and strength of character in time of grief, she has given the world an ideal of true womanhood.

For this reason, and as an expression of our sympathy to the family of our late President, we, the Del Sarto Staff of 1964, dedicate this edition of our yearbook to Mrs. Kennedy and her children, Caroline and John, Jr.

HIS HOLINESS POPE PAUL VI

COACHES

Ed Deffenbaugh, Bob Hutson, Bill O'Connell, and Mary Jo Clinger.

We wish to take this opportunity to say thanks for the wonderful training and help given by these four coaches along with Coach Rice who was not here when this picture was taken.

Because of the principles of these faculty members we feel that the boys and girls of St. Pius X will be better men and women in the world in which they will take their place.

SENIOR PLAY

Director Mary Fenn instructs Chris Rawlinson and Mary Pawloski

Okay, it's a deal, Chuch. Hang on a minute until Billie and I get this note written so you can get some gas.

Just because Chuch has an embargo on his dates doesn't mean that I have to sit at home.

Patsy you're a pretty good accomplice.

SENIOR TRIP MAY 6, 1964

BANDERA MAYAN DUDE RANCH

SENIOR PROM APRIL 24, 1964 CORK CLUB

SENIOR MASS
May 21, 1964
ALL SAINTS CHURCH

The first of the senior activities is the Mass. Each year the Mass is held in one of the parish churches on the Thursday before graduation.

CORPUS CHRISTI, AMEN.

GRADUATION
EXERCISES
May 24, 1964

Cecilia Kopycinski bids the class, faculty, parents, and friends "welcome" as she begins her salutatory.

Alice Marek, STUDENT-BODY PRESIDENT, receives the coveted SERVICE AWARD from Father Brenda, O. P.

Joseph Hughes was awarded a slide rule from the AMERICAN CHEMICAL ASSOCIATION.

Seniors welcome Father Jack Perusina as he takes his place at the lecturn for their baccalaureate address.

Fr. John Perusina, Pastor of Assumption, speaks to graduates, parents, and friends.

Beverly White bids farewell to her classmates in her valedictory talk.

The long awaited day! Seniors receive their diplomas from Fr. Perusina as Fr. Sablica, O. P. reads their name.

The final march for the seniors '64 as Beverly White leads the class from the halls of St. Pius.

President's Message to the Student Body

In Lord Tennyson's poem "Ulysses" we are given a challenge—life's challenge—"to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield." We are faced with this command with the dawn of each new school year. This year, as always, has passed rapidly, and yet each of us has no doubt experienced disappointments as well as happiness in its short span.

At St. Pius—our school—each of us is given opportunities in abundance with which to meet our everyday trials. You must learn to use them fruitfully, for your success or failure in some particular ideal may depend upon it.

For you, St. Pius should hold a special meaning. Make St. Pius your second home, a home filled with the joys of learning, the experience of giving, the warmth of true friends. Work with your school in all its activities. Cheer with its cheerleaders, help its teachers, give of yourself in every way possible. In this way will you be able to reap abundantly the benefits found here at St. Pius.

Be an individual. Stand up for what you know is right despite what others may say. Learn to be a leader—not a sheep. Accept cheerfully what you know you cannot change. By so doing you will grow to a maturity of spirit that will mark you a student who has striven, sought, and has found.

And yet, you should realize that the best is not good enough. Be careful not to be satisfied with the work you have completed. Strive to find newer and greater horizons. God has given you much. Find it in your heart to give much back to Him.

This year is my last here at St. Pius, but the memories, rich and deep will linger always. The store of knowledge and experience I have gained as Student Body President will, I am sure, be of even greater value than it has already been. I thank you all for the golden opportunity to serve St. Pius to represent her, to love her more deeply. Thank you for helping me grow up just a little more in love of Our Lord for His many blessings bestowed upon our school.

Freshmen, my sincere wishes of good luck are with you in your remaining high school years.

Sophomores, prepare yourselves for a simply fabulous year of upper-classmanship.

JUNIORS, SENIORS of '65, best of luck to a great group of kids.

Seniors, my fellow classmates, we express our farewell to our dear school with perhaps a sigh of relief, but even more possibly with a pang of sorrow and realization that our days as seniors are no more. May God bless each of you and guide you to success in whatever you do.

To St. Pius, to the faculty, to the students, thank you for four of the most wonderful years of my life.

SCIENTIFIC SEARCHERS

The members of the Scientific Searchers have greatly improved at St. Pius with many efforts.

Officers Gerald Stokan, Tom Wolf, T. Jozwiak, David delos Santos, seem to be authorities on experiments.

Tommy Talent, president, discusses topic with treasurer, Bill Lussier and fellow members: Joe Vitanza, David Gouldie and George Forsythe.

Melanie Haldas and Virginia Herbert seek information in reference books.

The library proves to hold much information for these three debaters.

TORCHBEARER

The next issue of the Torchbearer begins to come to life as Virginia Wagner, Joe Hughes, Jimmy Batt and Patty Collier check the calendar for coming events while planning the news stories.

News stories to write...deadlines to meet...Sylvia Garcia, Grace Jurecka, Richard Vara and Marilyn Cykala work busily to complete type-copy on the "big news" around school.

Many hours of research lie ahead as Mary Fenn, Nancy Hormachea, Mary Frances Hamala and Herman Jadloski attend to writing feature stories and editorials. The student's interest is of top importance in this field of writing.

Catch that misspelled word! Be sure and correct that date! The paper is well on its way as Vicky Zoth, Frank Skelly, Charlotte Mock, and Robert Hobizal spot the errors.

Pictures must tell a story...another job in putting the paper together. Barbara Bouldin and Geraldine Kriskhke measure and "crop" photos while Donny Stepanski and Rosalie Savarino use their imagination and wit combined in drawing clever editorial cartoons.

Physical appearance makes or breaks the newspaper's appeal. Jimmy Tauriello, Diane Campise and Leon Mustachio strive to accomplish this as they put the final stories together in the job of make-up. Insert Chris Rawlinson, an able member of this group.

The Torchbearer runs its last lap in production as Paul Taylor, Greg Schildgen, Anthony Aquilina, and Paul Montabano fold, wrap, address, and stamp issues to be sent out. St. Pius exchanges papers with many different schools.

CHRISTMAS QUEEN CANDIDATES

Kathy Lenart, Sharon Kite, Betty Spaulding and escorts

In choosing the Christmas Queen each homeroom selects a candidate. Each candidate raises votes at one cent per vote. The money received in the campaign is given to the library fund. The girl with the most votes in her class represents her class at the dance. Of these four finalists the one who has obtained the most votes reigns as Queen of the Ball.
